THORMAN HUNT

EST. WINE SHIPPERS 1978

Domaine Laurent Fayolle

Gervans

Crozes-Hermitage Blanc
Les Pontaix

Grower

Laurent and Céline Fayolle run this family estate in Gervans, in the historic heart of Crozes-Hermitage, building on a family legacy of some 150 years. Laurent has grown the domaine to 13 hectares and expanded the cellar so that the wine can be moved by gravity. These are classically made wines, and most of the range is now certified organic.

Vineyards

0.63 hectares in the lieu-dit Les Pontaix, in the village of Crozes-Hermitage in the north of the appellation. A steep slope of granite and loess facing south and south east, planted from a mass selection at 7,500 vines per hectare. The vines are bush trained and tied to stakes, and the soil is worked by horse.

Vinification

Harvested by hand into small cases. Whole bunch pressing and cold settling, then fermentation with natural yeasts in barrels and large casks. The malolactic fermentation is completed, and the wine is aged for 11 months on its fine lees.

Style

A rich, full white Crozes-Hermitage, balanced by freshness and a long finish. A fine partner for white meat, poultry and richer fish dishes.
