Grower
Joseph Colin left his family domaine in 2016 to forge his own path, and now farms 6 hectares from new cellars on the edge of Saint-Aubin. Everything in the vines is done by hand, with ploughing between the rows and no herbicides or chemical fertilisers; organic products are used wherever possible. On the steepest slopes grasses are grown to combat erosion.

Vineyards
56 ares on very rocky limestone soils: three quarters on the plateau above Chevalier-Montrachet, with plenty of light, and one quarter from Les Cortons, close to La Chatenière.

Vinification
The grapes are gently whole bunch pressed and the must runs straight into barrel, with no settling, chilling or sulphur. Fermented with indigenous yeasts and aged for 12 months in barrel, mainly 350 litres and 15% to 20% new, without bâtonnage. Racked after 12 months without sulphur according to the lunar calendar, with everything done by gravity. After racking the wine is lightly fined and sulphured, spends 2 months in tank and is bottled without filtration.

Style
A Saint-Aubin 1er Cru of tension, poise and energy, with the minerality and salinity of its rocky limestone. A fine partner for fish, shellfish and white meat.
