Grower

The Boigelot family have been cultivating vines since 1918. Eric learned his craft at Coche-Dury before founding his own 3.5 hectare domaine in Monthélie, where his family have had land for generations. Today Eric and his wife Patricia tend 9 hectares around Meursault, Monthélie, Volnay and Pommard, and the winery moved to Meursault in 1998. Their son Charles, who trained at Coche-Dury and Paul Pillot, has joined them. Eric has always been committed to sustainable viticulture, and Charles is introducing an organic approach in the vineyards.

Vineyards

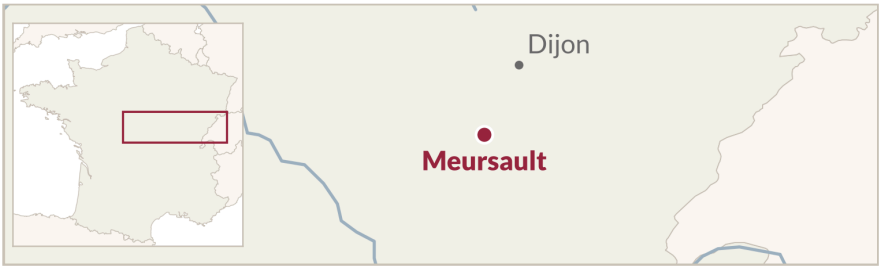

A village Monthélie from the family's vines in Monthélie.

Gentle extraction to give fine, precise aromatics, with native yeasts and only small additions of sulphur if needed. Aged for 12 months in oak barrels, then 6 months in vat, with a gentle filtration before bottling.

Style

A fine, precise red Burgundy, made in the domaine's elegant style.
